Angel Cakes by Virginia Valentine

Angel Cakes & Indulgence have been working together behind the scenes to bring you some great new products and services; the new joint venture is to be called Angel Cakes at Indulgence!

Two great ideas we have had is to offer a new range of delicious home made sponges in a variety of flavours, we have already been trialling these and we shall be asking for volunteers for a naked cake tasting session on Tuesday!! So bring your tastebuds along for a treat!

And we have also booked our first joint cupcake and ice cream birthday party! We are hoping to launch these in a big way as they are not only suitable for children and young people, they are ideal for hen parties, girly get togethers and just friends wanting to have some fun! The decorating (and usually tasting) side can cover cupcakes, mini edible models, cookies and working with chocolate! Tasty and very very messy but loads of fun!!
